Welcome Exhibitors and Friends

Welcome to the 2018 SHCA Nationals! We are delighted to have you join us for the 2018 National Specialty.

Please respect the hotel and other guests. And please stay off the golf course. If you head west of the hotel lobby, there are 3 dog runs set up for your use. Please share.

The restaurant at the hotel is quite good, but if you want to venture out, there is a lot to choose from in St. Charles. Consult the St. Charles event book found in your welcome bag for more infor-

A Day At The Siberian Specialty

It was the day of the Siberian Specialty and outside of the ring,

People were grooming their beautiful dogs for the big fling.

The trophies were set on a large table with care, all the big rosettes were on display there.

The show chair was busy checking her list, she was hoping there nothing she had missed.

The raffle chair was busy setting out the raffle trinkets and people were gawking and purchasing tickets.

Stewards began handing out the exhibitor armbands and pointing to the bag holding the rubber bands.

Then I heard the start of our National Song,

I stopped grooming my dog to sing along.

After the anthem, the puppy dogs went into the ring.

It was fun to see all the youngsters do their thing.

The day progressed and more Siberians were seen.

Each was so beautiful and truly a dream.

After a few hours of watching everything,

the final big class was called into the ring.

It was the Best of Breed class and every dog there was already a champion and would be handled with flair.

I saw Cinnar, and Nate, Carter and Woody.

Then came Chip, and Niklas, Broker, and Rocky.

Next came the girls, including Marushka, Janis, and Teeter.

They really enjoyed showing and nothing was sweeter.

The judge looked at each Siberian with a smile on her face.

She had a beautiful group of dogs to judge and then place.

It took a long time and many down and backs,

then the judge made some picks from those with great stacks.

All of us watched with great anticipation

as the judge went over her final selection.

With a twirl of her hand she sent the finalists around,

I watched the beautiful Siberians trot smoothly over the ground.

She pointed to the Siberian in front of the line.

It was a wonderful specimen of the breed and truly was fine.

All the ribbons and trophies were given to the winners, then people began leaving the area to talk about dinner.

Grooming equipment and dogs were loaded into vans, everyone was tired and walked as if in a trance.

I was exhausted too, but very happy,

my male Siberian had qualified in obedience rally.

Then I heard someone exclaim as they drove out of sight,

"See you all at the next specialty and have a Good Night!"
